Soccer Camp Coaches

Associate Camp Director Al Driscoll

Al Driscoll is a former Grand View player and current assistant coach. As a player, Driscoll was a three-time captain and guided GV to four consecutive District 15 Championships. He was All-District First Team four times, and a two-time Region and All-American selection. His playing career includes stints with the USISL Indoor Professional League (Permian Basin) TX, USISL Outdoor Professional League with Austing Soccadillos, TX, player and captain for the Des Moines Menace 1994-1997, and player and coach for the 1998-99 Menace making consecutive trips to the USL Final Four. Driscoll was a player and coach for the USL Select Atlanta Silverbacks. He has coached many seasons of youth soccer in Central Iowa. With several State Championships and Region semi-finalists, he saw dozens of his players achieve NCAA and NAIA scholarships. Throughout his coaching and playing career, Driscoll stayed close to his alma mater and was instrumental in helping the Vikings qualify for the NAIA National Tournament in 2003, 2004 and 2010.
